In Memory Of

Bette Dustin Spiro

The Magic Circle Players would like to take this opportunity to remember Bette Dustin Spiro, the founding mother of the Magic Circle Theatre.

Bette started the Magic Circle Theatre in 1959 almost single-handedly, and was the catalyst for the Theatre's growth during its beginning years. She served the Theatre with unswerving dedication and enthusiasm for over 10 years.

Her philosophy for the Theatre was to provide an education and expand the horizons of both the participants and the audience. She was a special person, and she left her mark on the Montrose community by bringing live theater to us. Thank you, Bette!
