SCENE COMMENTS

Scene Comments

The action of the play takes place around 1910-12 in and around San Francisco. As the play is written the audience will be led by Katrin, the writer, from her grown-up "current" time back in time to "earlier" remembrances. Katrin moves quickly from the "now" to the "then" and you, the viewer, will go with her from scene to scene.

In order to maintain momentum, sets are minimal, with the exception of The Kitchen. Lighting is an extremely important element of the scene/time changes in the play.

"Mama" is being staged in 3 acts:

Act 1 - 10 minute intermission

Act 2 - 5 minute intermission

Act 3

The play was adapted by John Van Druten from the book "Mama's Bank Account" by Kathryn Forbes. Kathryn is of course, Katrin, in the play and "Mama" is a story based on her real-life experiences as a girl.
